

PRODUCT news

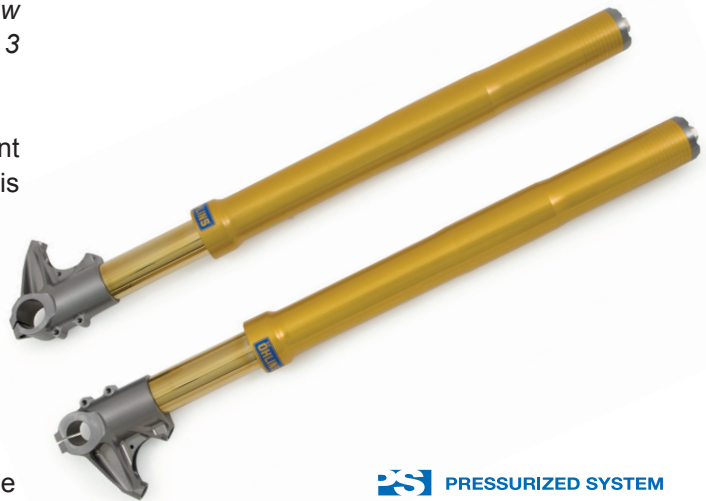

RACING FG385 MOTO3 FRONT FORK

For the 2012 season Öhlins can proudly offer a new generation front fork for the new and exciting Moto 3 class in Grand Prix racing.

This new front fork from Öhlins racing department is specifically developed for the new class and is expected to head straight to the front of the grid.

FEATURES

- Titanium nitride coated inner tubes
- Designed for twin radial brake calipers
- 4 450 gram including springs
- Pressurized damping system designed to use the same concept as in our MotoGP forks
- Low hysteresis, easy to tune and very easy to work with and service
- Preload adjustable from outside with 18mm adjustment range
- Rebound low speed and compression low speed adjustable from the outside
- Tool kits optional for self service
- Complete setting library included

 PRESSURIZED SYSTEM

Issued 2011-10-18

Öhlins Racing AB | Box 722 | S-194 27 Upplands Väsby | Sweden
Phone +46 8 590 025 00 | Fax +46 8 590 025 80
info@ohlins.se | www.ohlins.com

